The Agenda should, in respect of XI, XII & XIII have issued with the concurrence of the Second Member as the circumstances of the case. The mistake is regretted.

As it has issued, it is not easy to correct the mistake now. There is not sufficient time to issue a revised agenda.

I have read the Criminal Tribes Bill & it is a very important & serious & speech

Was not in the Select Committee - & this matter really falls under the Judicial portfolio not Revenue

The Inspector Cochrane for the Govt. members not to make motions - & he took it decidedly enough of many members. Upon before such decision is made I think enquiry should be conducted

Further before the agenda is fixed upon the cases connected with motions should be sent to the members concerned about a week before date

The Second Member writes that he will not move proposition... I II ~~III~~ XIII, and on the ground that he was not consulted, and that it is not time for preparation.

The practice has b to issue the Agenda after approval by the Member in charge and the Dewan. I accordance with this long standing practice, the day with the mover's names w not sent to the Second Mem If ordered, it will be issued in future with the consen of all the members of Com
